years ago, our Pointer family lost two of our own: Patricia Statz '83 and Dennis Johnson '75. This is a photo from when we honored and remembered those two who lost their lives while working in the Pentagon during the tragic events that took place on 9/11. Families of both alumni were present to receive memorial plaques featuring the UWSP seal and the name of their family member. A moment of silence was also held in honor of all who lost their lives on 9/11.

People of POINT

"I just transferred from the University of Wisconsin-Marathon County, so this is my first semester on the UW-Stevens Point campus. I transferred because I really like Stevens Point and it's close to my house. I also love the professors here at UWSP. They're super friendly and easy going! I am originally from Kenya but I have been in the United States for about five years. I ended up in Stevens Point because my parents work here. Stevens Point is a lot different than Kenya; it's really cold. It's fun though! I started skiing so I got used to it a little bit. My favorite thing about the United States is that there are so many opportunities here. You can drive and get a job at 16 and it makes you super independent at a young age. My goal one
