"What an amazing experience. I was totally blown away by its message and the work done by the students and UWSP Residential Living staff members who produced this program," said Chancellor Bernie Patterson about the Tunnel of Awareness, which took place on September 23.

Through various images and skits, attendees learned to be a voice against race and gender discrimination, ignorance, bullying and sexual assault.

People of POINT

"I am going for a double major in Math and Physics. I ended up in Stevens Point because it is close to home; most of my family is within 30 minutes from here. Campus is the right size for me, not too big and not too small. It has always felt like home. Throughout my college career, Dr. Herman and Dr. McCabe, who are both professors of mathematical sciences, have been inspiring to me. Whenever I have struggled, they were willing to sit me down and talk to me about it. They are both genuinely accepting people. I still have classes with them and hope to keep in contact with them even after I graduate. They are the reason campus has really felt like home."
